Harvard Din & Tonics

The Harvard Din & Tonics are Harvard University's signature jazz a cappella group, known for their rich tradition of musical and performance excellence. Their repertoire centers around American jazz standards, but also frequently includes pop, disco, and folk music. These world-touring Harvard students — who perform in white tie and tails, garnished with lime green socks — have an enviable reputation for their impeccable musicality, snappy choreography, and hilarious antics.

Food Pantry

We have recently installed a food pantry cabinet for our residents that is located in the Linden/Chambers Community Room. If you would like to donate any dry or canned goods, please bring them with you.
